* All gowns and merchandise are sent to Hitched Maids and can be picked up at the boutique. Bridesmaids that live outside the DC Metro area can have the dress shipped to them for a flat fee of $25 and will not be charged DC sales tax. If a bridesmaid decides not to pick up her dress at Hitched Maids after we have placed the order, we are happy to ship the dress to her for the $25 shipping fee, but cannot refund the sales tax. Likewise, if she chooses to change the order by picking up the dress instead of having it shipped, in advance of shipping it, we can accommodate the change, but cannot refund the shipping.
